NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 5th January 1966

G.S.R. 76.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (1) of rule 133-V of the Defence of India Rules, 1962, the Central Government hereby makes the following order further to amend the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Order, 1962, namely:—

1. This Order may be called the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Amendment Order, 1965.

2. In the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Order, 1962, for sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 8, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(6) Every person residing or carrying on business in India, who has in his possession or control any property belonging to, or held by or managed on behalf of an enemy subject (who is also an enemy firm) (including any such property of an enemy subject detained in an internment camp or restricted to a parole centre in India) and not covered by the preceding sub-paragraphs, shall, within two months of the vesting of the property, or if the vested property comes into his possession or control after the expiry of that period, within one month of his

so coming into possession or control, communicate to the Custodian full particulars of such property in Form F, in the case of property held in safe custody, and in Form G, in the case of property held otherwise.

In the case of property of enemy subjects, other than internees, residing in India, the above particulars may be confined to bank balances and deposits, gratuity, provident funds, dividends and similar payments, securities and immoveable property belonging to the aforesaid class of enemy subject".
